

Leadership and Service 2013-2014

This certificate will provide students the core skills and values needed for engagement in civic leadership. The program helps develop communication skills, explores diverse cultures, and requires participation in building communities. Students will obtain training and experiences in planning, policy development and implementation, decision-making, goal and objective development, leadership theory and styles, organizational development, cultural programming, time management, problem solving and conflict resolution, budget development, team building, group dynamics, event planning, student rights and responsibilities, governance alternatives, parliamentary procedures, and community service. This certificate is an excellent addition to the degree and transfer requirements for students pursuing any major. With careful planning, students may also double-count restricted electives toward satisfaction of their CSU GE Breadth or IGETC requirements.

Program Learning Outcomes:

- Students will have gained the core skills and values needed for development of leadership skills including communication, decision-making, governance alternatives, using parliamentary procedure, being an effective member of a team and developing a budget.
- Students will demonstrate skills needed to effectively provide service to and impact the surrounding community, and will be prepared for future civic responsibility and participation in building communities.
